

Code of Conduct

For Members and Visitors at The West Australian Bridge Club

The WABC Code of Conduct is to establish the standards of behaviour expected of Members and their Guests. Breaches of the Code will be referred to the Management Committee for action.

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of Members and their guests
2. Be fair, considerate, polite and courteous in dealing with others
3. Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility including in areas of punctuality, personal hygiene and the use of mobile phones. Your words and actions are an example
4. Be a positive role model for all new Members
5. Promote and maintain WABC, BAWA & ABF standards, rules, regulations and policies
6. Operate within the Rules of Bridge. Act in the interests of all concerned and politely call the Director to your table if you think there has been an irregularity
7. Treat the Director with respect at all times
8. Refrain from any form of abuse towards others
9. Refrain from any form of harassment towards, or discrimination of others
10. Provide a safe environment for the conduct of Club activities
11. Show concern and caution towards others who may be sick, injured, or with a disability
12. Do not use your involvement with Club to promote your own beliefs, behaviour or practices where these are inconsistent with those of ABF and their Member Associations
13. This Code of Conduct also incorporates the responsibility of Members and their guests to adhere to the Bar Code of Conduct in respect of the consumption of alcohol
14. Understand your responsibility if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of this Code of Conduct. Issues related to a breach of this Code of Conduct must be brought to the attention of the Management Committee, preferably in writing.

Ratified by the Management Committee 20th July 2021
